Be sure to go to the Fair Grounds Saturday and see the ball game between the Burlingtons and the No. 1s.

Rev. Mr. Fisk, formerly of Watfield, has been in town for a week past. He occupied the desk at the Congregational Church Sunday morning and evening, presenting very interesting sermons. It is expected he will leave the Thursday evening prayer meeting and preach again next Sabbath.

Edwin Chaffee is ahead on early vegetables, this time, and show fine hard cabbages and turnips big enough for September, and it is only July 30. Think of it! It was only so late in the season when he remembered the News and Citizen. Mr. Chaffee will be around once a week with vegetables of all kinds.

Road Master Severance, had a gang of twenty or more men at work in the railroad yard here on Sunday. The switches were quite generally torn up, and it seemed necessary to get the work on the siding to the tannery and to the coal shed, and the changed siding to the engine house.

The force of men at work on the tannery siding has been increased, and Mr. Fitch, who will have the erection of the building in charge, began work Monday morning. Mr. Russell, of Burlington, came to town Monday to build the large chime, which will be about 75 feet high and stand at the north side of the main building and nearly directly at the foot of Portland St.

Colonel Safford, hereafter, we have seen the official document recognizing "Major" Safford as a "Lieut.-Colonel of the 1st Regiment Vermont Heavy Artillery from and after July 10th, 1865." We are heartily glad to stand corrected after so long a time as to this, and we hope we have the change will be as easy for us to get the hang of as it is for him.

Mrs. Daniel Stevens died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Luther Adams, on Friday last week, at the age of 82 years. The funeral took place on Sunday, Rev. Mr. Douglass officiating. The deceased was born Feb. 25, 1805, and was the daughter of Dea. Jacob Walker, the first settler of this town.

Among the interesting features of the Soldiers' Reunion to be held in this place, August 14 and 15, will be an address on the second day by Col. T. O. Seaver, one of the "Old Brigade's" best officers. Also a speech at the public dinner, to be given by the Hon. Charles F. Johnson, of New York, on the evening of August 14 by Lieut. Gov. U. A. Woodbury, and other veterans. On the afternoon of the 14th will be a game of baseball for $10 and supper, open to the first comers who notify their acceptance. On the last day in the afternoon there will be a sham fight in old army style.

Messrs. Warren & Somerville are in town to-day and prepared to attend to any matters pertaining to the water works. It is reported that the water parties in town who do not take water from the company, but procure it at the houses of neighbors who take the water and pay for it, thereby procuring it without rendering any equivalent therefor, will not be allowed, and patrons of the company who have been allowing others to procure water at their faucets and who are not paying for it, will be notified to discontinue the practice or they will themselves be notified to do so.

Dr. Eugene Thompson, of Rutland, was in town last week, called here by the sickness of his mother. The doctor has a valuable practice and was unable to be away for any length of time. We clip the following from the Herald of the 23rd inst. relative to a difficult surgical operation performed by him.

Mr. Andrew Brothers, who lives on Pine street, was operated upon yesterday morning, Dr. Thompson for strangulated hernia, the operation being performed by Dr. Allen, Putnam and Harriman. The operation was successful. The patient was in the day and was in a very comfortable condition last evening. The chances are favorable for his recovery.

Mrs. George Burdum and wife are in town this week, taking a vacation. Some of our farmers have finished laying, notwithstanding the wet weather.

Miss Walker, of St. Albans, is in town visiting at Mr. S. M. Safford's and Lother Putnam's.

The Smith Bell Ringers gave a very pleasing entertainment at Reynolds' Hall, last Wednesday night, to a packed house.

Our committee have engaged Miss Verona Fitch and Miss Spaulding to teach our village school. Miss Fitch is well-known here, having taught several terms in this village. Miss Spaulding gave excellent satisfaction last term, and are pleased to know that they will return this fall.

A band was organized here Saturday night, and with the assistance of Prof. Sherman, of Burlington, has been engaged to give instruction. The boys seem very anxious to learn, and it is hoped that the Sabbath is used for the same. Now, the practicing may be all right on Sunday, but the boys should remember to get somewhere out of hearing during service hours.

Can a man be a Christian and play a card game? Rev. Mr. Chas. Spurgeon, of London, "Yes," replied the noted evangelist, "repudiated the old saying, 'whether his neighbor can be a Christian if he plays a card game.'"

Prof. Sherwood and wife, of New York, called on Monday at the residence of Mr. Mansfield. On invitation by Charles Cornell, Sherwood was to give a piano recital at the hotel parlors. Several of our music loving people were present, and they were wonderfully pleased. It was a treat such as we never had before. Many thanks are due Mr. Cornell for his kind invitation and for the performance here. The party went to the mountain Saturday and spent the Sabbath there.

during that time there has been no communication between himself and friends. He goes now to give them a surprise.

Charles and Alonzo Wheeler were arrested by Sheriff Hardy for getting drunk and creating a row at a dance at Miss Emerson's several days ago. Trial held at Green River Tuesday before Justice Cady, with State's Attorney Powers as prosecuting officer. Both pleaded guilty and paid their fines and costs, amounting in all to some $25. The Court then demanded that they tell the Court where they intended to go. They refused to do, and consequently were committed to the county jail.
